Municipal District Reports On Successful Operations

A large group of interested ratepayers were on hand Saturday to listen to a discussion of the affairs of the Municipal District of Mountain View. The annual meeting was held in the auditorium of the Didsbury high school.

Reeve Wm. J. Bagnall gave a detailed report which covered the activities of the council, as well as a breakdown of how the tax dollars were spent. He said that 76 per cent of the current levy had been collected and also that arrears from previous years had been reduced by $61,537.89.

In connection with the road building program there were 30 miles of newly gravelled road, 107 miles of road repaved, 36 miles of new grade constructed, 11 bridges installed, 9 old bridges replaced with steel culverts. A total of 68,000 cubic yards of gravel were used on municipal roads and to replenish stock piles.

In summarizing, the Reeve pointed out that the municipal district had experienced one of the better years of the year financially since formation of the large unit in 1944. For the first time the year was ended with all loans paid and a net bank balance of $12,347.19.

The field supervisor, Mr. Snyder, in reporting on the activities of the Agricultural Service Board, stated that 43,160 trees had been planted on 35 district farms. The weed control program involved the spraying of roadsides to the extent of over 1800 single miles with 2-D, and about 1200 miles of roadsides had been mowed for removal to prevent snow drifting. Thirty miles of newly backfilled road sides had been seeded with creeping red fescue.

Regarding the Bangs vaccination program a total of 14,262 heifer calves were vaccinated during the year, with a total of 1147 adult female cattle having been blood-tested for auction sales.

In summarizing the field supervisor stated that the actual cost to the ratepayers for operating the Service Board was one-third of a mill.

The Erickson girls held a skating party on the river Monday.

The mixed bonspiel sponsored by the Cremona Legion on Sunday was a most enjoyable affair.

FORMER DISTRICT RESIDENT MAKES A CALL

Rev. F. E. Martin of Medicine Hat was in town last week to attend a church conference. The editor had a chat with the young fellow the other day — he's only 99 years old — and he informed us that he had farmed west of Didsbury in earlier years and also preached at the Westcott church in his spare time.

Rev. Martin has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hooper during his visit to his old haunts and has renewed many old acquaintances.

MELVIN NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Best wishes for a speedy recovery go to Mrs. Doug Johnston who is a patient in the Calgary Holy Cross Hospital, and to May Johnston who has the mumps.

The W.I. military whist drive at Fischer's on Tuesday evening had eight tables in play. First prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. E. Gooding and Mr. W. Collins. Consolations went to Mrs. J. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. M. McRae and Neil Youngs.

With the promise of cooler weather for the weekend the Elkton Bonspiel and the Westcott and Didsbury Carnivals should do well. A number from the district have entered the bonspiel at Elkton.

"Daisy Mae" McCoy, reputed to be the oldest active "curler" in Canada today is shown above as she prepares to deliver a rock in a recent bonspiel in Olds. Mrs. Kay Clarke of Carstairs looks on with approval at the style used by "our favorite curler."

Ice Stampede "A Winner"

The annual Ice Stampede, sponsored by Mountain View Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts Association, was held here in the memorial arena Saturday night.

Groups from Bowden, Olds, Carstairs, Cremona, Westcott and Didsbury were on hand to take part in the program.

The chuck-wagon races were as exciting as any you'll see at the Calgary Stampede and the contestants went after their chores as though they were playing for the blue chips.

The Calgary Highlanders Pipe Band were on hand to add more than a touch of color to the event as they performed on the slippery surface with precision and a very fine brand of piping.

During the evening Mr. Jack Robertson was presented with a "medal of merit" for good service to Scouting.

Also, a certificate of merit for gallantry from the Governor General of Canada, was presented to David Turner, son of Mrs. V. Turner of Didsbury, for his actions in saving a young lad from drowning at Red Lodge Park last summer.

Also on the agenda was a free ride in a wheelbarrow, for Mayor H. Lynch-Staunton, Mayor Ted Miller of Olds was at the controls. This deal had to do with Didsbury collecting more blood for the Red Cross than Olds did at the last blood donor clinic held in this area. With your help our mayor can continue in the front seat role. Remember, next time they call for blood, help the mayor have a free ride — maybe some day you will have a life-saving ride through the facilities of the Red Cross.

It's true, the combined circulation of The Didsbury Pioneer and The Saturday Evening Post has now reached 4,000,500.

'Morgie' Answers The Last Call

William Howard Morgan, known as our "postie" for so many years, passed away in the Didsbury hospital on Friday, February 21st.

The only name he travelled by most people's books was "Morgie". That's the name many friends want to remember him by.

Old-timers will re-call the many, many mornings that "Morgie" made his way from the farm to town (on foot) and had all the mail sorted on schedule. Many will remember the undercover jobs he initiated to help, where help was needed. Many will remember "Morgie". May he rest in peace.

Born in Newton, Wales, he came to Calgary in 1910, and to Didsbury in 1919. He was postmaster here for 34 years and received a scroll from the Postmaster General of Canada and a letter of appreciation for the services rendered by him. He retired in 1953.

He had served overseas during World War I. He was a member of the King Hiram Lodge, A.F. and A.M., the Scottish Rite, the Canadian Legion, No. 106 and the Postal Association.

Predeceased by his wife, Emily in 1942, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Joyce Mullen, of Didsbury, Mrs. Margaret Rowland of Ottawa, and Mrs. Gwyneth Thompson, of Red Deer; one son, Trevor, of Didsbury; one sister, in England; one brother, John of Vancouver, B.C. and 10 grandchildren.

Private services were held at Gooder Brother's Funeral Chapel, Calgary, Tuesday at 1:30 p.m., and cremation in the Calgary crematorium.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Morgan and family; Mr. and Mrs. George Mullen and family in their bereavement.

Sympathy is also extended to the St. Clair family in the passing of their mother Mrs. E. St. Clair of Olds.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Green and family were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder and family.

LOCAL GIRL WINS TOP 4-H HONORS

A local lass, 17-year-old Betty Wright, a 4-H member of this district, has won top recognition for her ability in the junior judging contest held in connection with the selection of the All-Canadian Holsteins for the current show season. She gained 136 out of a possible 140 points. A fair average, no less. Betty has helped milk the home herd morning and evening for the past five years and also does many other chores around the "home" place. She plans to attend the agriculture school at Olds.

Miss Wright won a special prize for the best kept records in her club last year, had the top two-year-old and placed third with her yearling.

She will receive a model of the true-type Holstein cow, presented by the Alberta branch of the Holstein Friesian Association.

Congratulations are in order from "The Pioneer", her club members and many other friends.

Ramblers Clinch Second Place In Chinook Hockey League

Didsbury Ramblers clinched second place in the Chinook Hockey League standings when they dropped the Innisfail Oilers 6-2 here Tuesday night. Second place was at stake in this game and the locals made sure of the victory.

Didsbury led 2-0 at the end of the first; each team scored in the sandwich session and the northers were outscored three goals to one in the final session.

M. McCoy scored two for the Ramblers, and gained an assist; Wayne Shantz, Lloyd Devine, Herman Epp and LaVerne Neufeld added single goals. The assists came from Devine (2), Buter Neufeld (2), Shantz, Robertson and Morris.

Six penalties were handed out during the contest but it was the opinion of the referee that the hammer should have come down a little oftener. There were times when the game was near to getting out of hand; that kind of play we don't care to see.

In other games during the week Didsbury dropped a 4-3 overtime decision to Innisfail and defeated Trochu 4-0 in another league encounter.

The draw for the "400 Club" car will take place at the Kinns dance at Mountain View hall on Friday night. Some tickets are still available and can be purchased from either Chuck Wrigthson or Fred Rodway. Tickets will also be available at the dance.

A distinguished group of Canadian designers, artists and trians blended their ideas and skills to achieve a distinctive Canadian theme in the public rooms named and decorated for the provinces of Canada in the new 400-room, air-conditioned addition to Toronto's Royal York hotel. The new addition, boosting the hotel's capacity to 1000 rooms, making it the largest in the British Commonwealth, was formally opened on Feb. 21. Big Show Here Saturday Night . . .

The Lions Club have completed plans for its annual winter carnival, to be held on Saturday evening. The grand parade starts at 7:45 and Canadian champion skaters from Red Deer will be present; the kiddies and would-be kiddies, will be costumed up. Sounds like a good show. Be there — you don't necessarily have to put on a new face, wear the one you have — but make sure there's a smile on it.

Too Many Free Rides . . .

The following wee bit from the pages of The Camrose Canadian makes sense to us, we hope it has the same effect on you. We quote: "We are all for unemployment insurance and fully realize that our economy would often be near collapse without it. At the same time, it has been continually brought to our attention that there are far too many 'free rides' being taken on the unemployment insurance band wagon. Observers have told us that the number of deliberately planned 'riders' year after year climb into brackets away above the hundred thousand mark. This makes Canada's unemployment situation look worse than it really is. These men go out in summer and work for six to seven months, then return to the population centres and immediately apply for unemployment insurance benefits. They withdraw to a complacent, comfortable, lackadaisical existence till the spring thaw. It would be interesting to see the results of a survey on this situation. All this puts an unhappy burden on workers and businesses who operate without the need of unemployment insurance."

Just For The Record . . .

Some scratching has been done by graders on some of the town streets, and have taken away some of the bumps and ravinings caused by recent snows and freezing temperatures, which have been plaguing motorists and pedestrians alike. We are told it's a tough task to loosen the hard stuff but a little more work with the big needles on the front end of a grader could make a big difference yet. So far only the outside surface has been bothered. (Imagine a layman talking about things such as this!)

Another Famous Quote . . .

"Are you working on the solution — or are you part of the problem?"

"It pays to plant the best. Costs no more to plant quality Pool Seed, and makes every hour spent on the land pay bigger dividends."

CLAIMS EVERY HEAVY SMOKER WILL DEVELOP LUNG CANCER

A new American Medical Association cancer report quotes a leading medical authority as saying that every heavy smoker will develop lung cancer, unless some other disease kills him first. Reader's Digest magazine said.

The magazine's March issue carried a condensed version of an article on "The Growing Horror of Lung Cancer," in the March issue of Today's Health, published by the AMA.

The article quoted Dr. Alton Ochsner, internationally known chest surgeon, as saying that at the present time, only five out of every 100 lung cancer victims have any hope of living more than five years after the disease is detected. "It frightens me to think of what is going to happen in an other decade when our present smoking habits catch up with us," Ochsner was quoted.

"Already, lung cancer has achieved epidemic proportions. Holland had a 20-fold increase in death between 1924 and 1951. Death rates in England and Wales have climbed tenfold. In the United States, the record is about the same. The toll rising from 2,500 in 1930 to an estimated 35,000 last year. "It is significant that the sharp

PLATES SHINE . . .

Glowing auto licence plates are becoming more general. Three U.S. states now use plates which light up in headlight-beams. Four more are issuing them this year. Makes sense.

Increase in lung cancer is almost exactly proportionate to the increase in cigarette sales. It is my firm conviction that every heavy smoker will develop lung cancer — unless heart disease or some other sickness claims him."

Ochsner was quoted as saying that most lung cancers apparently grow fast. Early detection therefore is important, he said. Only x-ray and sputum tests can discover lung cancer at its earliest stages, he said.

The article said Ochsner believes that after the age of 40, every pack-a-day smoker should have a chest x-ray at least every six months, but preferably every three months.

"A set of chest x-rays, front and side views, usually costs from $15 to $25 — expensive, but no more so than cigarettes themselves," the magazine said.

It quoted Ochsner as saying that if enough people took such precautions, lung cancer might become 30 per cent curable, instead of 95 per cent fatal. (Selected)

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM YOUR GAS COMPANY

Canadian Western Natural Gas Company Limited

Canadian Western Leads The Way With "Punch Card Billing"

Your gas bill gets a new look this month!

Prompted by the rapid growth in the number of people served, Canadian Western Natural Gas Company Limited now offers its customers streamlined punch card billing service.

The rate and method of charging remain the same, but in place of that familiar typed slip your new bill is a card punched with small holes.

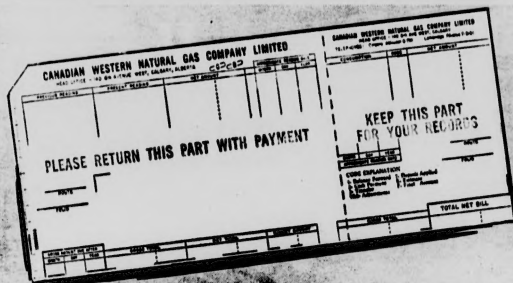

Though much smaller in size, it contains all the pertinent information that the old bill carried, plus an explanation of the various changes made.

Why these changes? Just as gas company service makes it possible for you to use the most modern appliances to run your home, so the gas company itself employs the most up-to-date methods of running its office.

Naturally, we're proud to be one of the first public utility companies in the west to introduce this new, more efficient billing service. May we have your assistance in two small matters related to its smooth operation?

One: Please be sure to return the larger portion of the bill with your payment. Keep the smaller portion for your records.

Two: Please do not bend or fold the payment portion. This must be kept flat, as it will be processed through high speed machines recording that payment has been made.

THREE FAVORITE FISH DISHES

By Evelyn Erdman
(Home Service Director)

Fish is a Lenten tradition, and many people welcome the change in diet it suggests. Today, fresh and frozen fish are available in such variety that the number of appetizing fish dishes you can serve are almost unlimited. Here are three favorites of mine.

DEVILLED TOMATO HADDOCK

Thaw two 12-oz. packages of frozen haddock fillets and place in the bottom of a casserole. Cut each block into four pieces.

Slice very thinly 1 medium-sized onion and saute in 1 tsp. butter or margarine until tender.

Add one 10-oz. can tomato sauce, 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce, 1 clove garlic (crushed) or 1 tsp. garlic powder, 1 tsp. prepared mustard, 1 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. thyme, 2 tsp. sugar and 1 tsp. basil, 2 tsp. chili sauce. Simmer gently for 5 minutes. Four sauce over fillets. Bake for 20 minutes at 400° F. Serves four.

FRIED RICE WITH SHRIMP

You need:
• 1 cup rice • 1 1/2 tsp. soy sauce • 1 1/2 cups water • 2 tsp. peanut or salad oil • 2 eggs • 1 tsp. salt • 1 tsp. pepper • 1 lb. shrimp (canned or fresh), chopped if desired • 1 large onion, chopped • 1 lb. mushrooms, sliced • 1 tsp. sugar.

Wash the rice thoroughly. Soak in warm water for 15 minutes. Drain and rinse again. Combine in a saucepan with the water. Cover and bring to a boil.

Cook over low heat for 12 minutes or until the water is absorbed. Heat the oil in a large, heavy skillet. Break the eggs into it and fry until firm. Then turn over and fry one minute.

Remove the pan from the heat and cut eggs into very thin shreds while still in the pan. Return to the heat.

Add the salt, pepper, shrimp, onions and mushrooms. Cook over low heat for 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Add the rice, soy sauce and sugar. Cook over medium heat for 5 minutes, stirring almost constantly.

ALASKA KING CRAB LEGS EN BROCHETTE

You need:
• 1 pkg. (12 oz.) frozen Alaska King crab legs • 1 lb. medium-sized mushrooms, peeled • 2 lemons, quartered • 2 tsp. olive oil or melted butter.

With a sawblade knife cut the crab legs into pieces (11"). Defrost. Remove pieces from shell. Peel and cut stem ends from mushrooms.

Arrange alternate pieces of crab meat, mushrooms and lemon quarters on a skewer. Brush with oil or melted butter.

Place in pan. Broil 7 minutes on one side. Turn over and broil 5 minutes on the other side.

Serve on a hot platter. Serves three.

FEBRUARY IS GAS DRYER MONTH

. . . and what better time than this month of wind and wintry weather to turn your thoughts to indoor clothes drying — with an automatic GAS dryer!

Only GAS dries clothes so quickly. While one load washes . . . another dries. And it's so gentle with all types of fabric. So economical, too! With GAS, the cost is as low as 13c per month for the average family wash.

See your appliance dealer's special Dryer Display this week. You'll like all the miracle features of the modern automatic GAS dryers. And while you're there, see the automatic GAS ranges — the answer to clean, fast, automatic cooking in the modern home.

Notes From D.A.

By HOWARD FULCHER
District Agriculturist

There is a danger of poisoning while treating seed grain when the proper care is not taken. There have been tragedies, farmers have lost their life; this fact emphasizes the need of extra care when toxic materials are being used. Most of the materials used in treating seed contain mercury, mercury dust and fumes are dangerous.

This danger is not too great and when proper precautions are taken the seed can be treated to help insure a healthy crop without undue dangers to the persons doing the treating. On the packages that you receive the treating material in, you will find the word "poison" with instructions and precautions to be taken; if these are followed there will be no ill effect. The ill effects are cumulative and sooner or later, if you take chances, the results of carelessness may catch up to you.

The following rules should be followed:

1. Avoid contact with skin or eyes.

2. Use a dust filter and fume mask.

3. If indoors provide thorough ventilation.

4. In case of contact, wash immediately with soap and water; if eyes, flush with water and get medical attention.

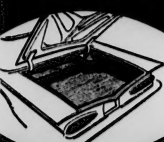

5. Keep packages tightly closed when not in use.

6. Mark treated seed "poisonous."

If any of the material is swallowed, cause vomiting with a mixture of salt, soap or mustard with warm water; then give as much white of egg, milk, gruel or flour in water as the patient can swallow.

DEAR HOMEMAKERS,

10 Points For Careful Buying

1. Beware of a dealer who lures you to his establishment with an attractive advertisement, then tries to sell you a higher-priced off-brand article. Don't be misled by phony claims of being out of advertised items, long wait for delivery, or that what he is trying to sell you is better than advertised article.

2. Be wary of hard-to-believe "bargain" prices. Check prices at other dealers, make sure advertised article is as claimed.

3. Never give up household appliances or other items for repairs without first getting in writing an estimate of probable repair cost. Get written assurance no additional charge will be made without your consent, that if you do not want "extra" repairs article will be returned immediately.

4. Don't let a casual door-to-door salesman leave merchandise with you on an "Approval Receipt" signature with a promise he will return. He may not come back and you may receive a bill for something you do not want but have unknowingly accepted by your signature.

5. Don't be rushed into buying by flowery sales talk or a "last chance to get in on a good thing". Take your time to make up your mind.

6. If you find item received is not what you ordered, don't use it and immediately notify seller. If finance company is involved and you receive notice for payment, communicate with them within 10 days, otherwise you may lose valuable rights.

7. Try to get a written guarantee; make sure you understand what it says, that it protects your rights. Get guarantee on installation of appliances and furnishings, such as carpeting; manufacturer can claim product's warranty has been void if not properly installed.

8. Don't make financial commitments you cannot possibly meet. If you fall behind payments, creditors may have legal right to repossess purchase and sell it to meet part or all of your indebtedness.

9. Insist that all details of sale be in writing. Read contract carefully before signing — especially the fine print. Demand and get exact copy of contract for yourself. Never sign a blank contract no matter what the dealer tells you.

10. If you have any doubt about a dealer, check with Better Business Bureau, local Chamber of Commerce, or some other community organization which protects the consumers and the legitimate, reliable business man.

LIVING IT UP . . .

Have you heard about the rich reclusive bachelor who had only a few months to live and who made arrangements to be buried in his Cadillac car?

He died as predicted, the over size grave was dug and the day of the funeral arrived. One of the grave diggers watching the strange burial waited until the car was lowered, and then turning to a co-worker, remarked in an awed tone: "Man, that's livin'!"

Pity A Disease Is Argument

I wonder when we are going to grow up, get down to work and quit being sorry for ourselves. When I say "we" I mean those of us in any way connected with farmers and agriculture, but mostly I mean the farmer on the land.

Self pity is the most demoralizing disease which can afflict an individual or a section of society. Farmers have one of the biggest, most chronic cases of self pity which ever struck anyone or anything. We feel sorry for ourselves individually and collectively. We regard ourselves as martyrs, and we want the whole world to know we are martyrs.

We Are Being Crucified

Well it is just about time that we got it through our thick rural heads that we aren't being crucified. To use a worn out saying: "Things are tough all over." Certainly farming has some rough going but it has some good easy going too. People in every class of society and industry have worries, but most of them don't complain as often or as loud as we farmers do.

Every day, here in the newspaper office, we get some long-winded report about some submission or delegation which has gone to Ottawa or Edmonton to plead the cause of the poor downtrodden farmer. It gets a bit sickening after a while. March to Ottawa, thousand-name petitions asking for everything from parity prices to new dentures for grandmother.

To anyone standing a little way off we must seem like a group of juveniles who really don't know what they want or where they are going. All that is clear is that we want someone else to do something for us. We can't seem to face anything these days without a government subsidy or floor price to back us up.

Let's Find The Old Spirit

Maybe the old legend about the pioneering spirit which built this country is 90 per cent bunk. At the same time we had better start digging around to see if we can find some of that old pioneering spirit. If we don't start using our feet to stand on we are going to end up one of these generations without any feet.

The "march" to Ottawa is fairly typical of our trend in thinking on the farm front these days. The idea of a march lends a crusading aspect to the affair, but that isn't quite honest or fair. It isn't a crusade. It is just the submission of a number of requests which could have been as effectively sent by mail or telegram as by a mass delegation of several hundred men.

Before the marchers started they were saying they didn't expect to gain anything by going to Ottawa. But it's the thing to do these days. Get down there, cry your troubles, blame everybody else for them, but don't ever think of minding your own business and doing a little, old fashioned hard work, that is out of style these days.

Old Testament Prophet Needed

What we farmers need today is a leader with a soul like Job of the Bible who will tell us the bolts we have are our own fault. Maybe they aren't but it would be good for our souls to be told we are responsible. We need someone who will roll up his sleeves and go in slugging to fight the good fight for the right and fair things. We need someone who can teach us to forget self-pity and remember self-reliance.

One of the big troubles today on the farm front is that those yelling the loudest either weren't around or can't remember what it was like when things were really tough.

A number of years ago when Old Sam Gompers was the bull-of-the-woods for the labor unions in the United States someone asked him what labor really wanted. Old Sam answered in one word "more". That's about how it is with farmers these days. We aren't quite sure what we want, just as long as it's more.

How about it boys? Let's quit feeling sorry for ourselves and get back to work. Remember farmers, that pork barrel you want to be dipping into all the time is a national dish. Other folks are going to get a little bit peeved if it is always a farmer's hand they see in the old keg.

INDEPENDENT SPIRIT

In a small Maine town they like to tell about the time the minister asked all in the congregation to rise who wanted to go to heaven. All but one man rose. Then the minister asked those to stand who wanted to go to hell. Nobody rose. The puzzled parson stared down at the non-cooperator and asked just where he wanted to go. "Nowhere," said this stalwart one. "I like it here."

Unusual Telephone System — It uses neither outside electricity nor even batteries — serves the 50-acre "city" which makes up Imperial Oil's new petrochemical plant at Sarnia, Ont. Here, 50 feet up a tower, Robert McLean makes a report to the six-sided control room in the background. The human voice, aided only by a tiny magnet, powers these phones which are less susceptible to the plant's noise and vibration than ordinary phones. The $28,500,000 plant has such phones at 30 locations, and is also equipped with its own sewers, fire hydrants, and two miles of paved streets. The chemical "building blocks" which the plant turns out finally end up in automobile tires, floor tile, plastic pipe and film, anti-freeze, detergents, and hundreds of other things. (Feature Photo)

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

President D. M. Taylor and Rev. Auburn Witt left last Saturday for Ohio, to attend the General conference of the United Missionary church. This meeting takes place once in four years and is the most important conference of the church. They will be away for two weeks. Rev. Alfred Dietz, pastor of the Mountain View church, is taking some of Mr. Witt's classes, and Rev. Alvin Traub, is taking those of Mr. Taylor's, with the exception of Greek. Thus the classes will not be disturbed with the absence of faculty members during this time.

A number of students were on deputation work last Sunday, going to Big Valley, Castor, Bergen, James River, Calgary and Headley. On Friday evening the local college entertained the college department of the Canadian Nazarene College of Red Deer. Miss Anne Snyder, Ray Stauffer, Wayne Stauffer and Evelyn Shauer, had charge of the evening as the social committee of the college. C.N.C. brought the devotional part of the social evening, after which refreshments were served. Once more the students enjoyed the Student Center facilities.

Miss Lois Suter visited her mother at the weekend. She spent her holidays with her brother in Montreal.

Mr. Bob Hale, pastor at James River, was a guest of the college for a couple of days last week. While here he spoke to the class in pastoral theology. This proved to be very successful, for his experience were of great value to the young people who will be doing like work in a year or two. He also spoke in chapel on Friday morning.

Rev. Bob Simpson presented another of his missionary films on Tuesday. The college regrets that Mr. Sam Eby has had to spend so many days in hospital since returning from his visit in California. He is on the mend now. He is missed around the school for he puts in many hours of gratis work here helping his son, Arthur.

MAGPIE CONTROL: From time to time people tell me their troubles concerning magpies creating a nuisance around a farmstead. These wily birds can make trouble, especially around a poultry yard in the spring of the year. In November of 1958 the magpie, by ministerial order, was declared a predator under the Setting of Poisons Act. By arrangement with the Department of Lands and Forests, the responsibility for control of magpies in the agricultural or settled areas of the province was assumed by the Department of Agriculture.

By ministerial order, strychnine, in special bait forms, is an approved poison for controlling magpies. Strychnine in powder form is available through licensed retail outlets. Farmers may prepare and use these baits on their own premises providing regulations under the Setting of Poisons Act are complied with.

Poisons for magpie control may only be set out from November to March inclusive so that desirable birds will not be affected.

Bulletin No. 120 is available from this office as well as the office of district agriculturist, which will explain to you in detail how to pro-

LIGHT YOUR WAY . . .

. . . WITH BIBLE STUDY

"If God knows all our troubles and needs, why then should we pray? Certainly, that is an interesting question. However, the answer does not depend on our human reason, but upon God's own Word."

"Call upon me," said God in Psalm 50. Clearly, this is His command. No matter what we may think or reason, it is His will that men pray; that men call upon Him. And He continues: "I will deliver thee." Thereby He indicates that He will also hear our prayers, yes, even though He knows our needs before we ask him. And, at the same time, we have His promise. He will help us.

And this brings out the third point, or as He Himself said: "In the day of trouble." As we face the many problems of today's complex manner of life, our own problems as well as those of our fellow-men, and the entire world situation, we find that we need greater strength than our own to cope with all these situations. Where can we find help? There is one place, and One Person to whom we can go at all times. That is our God, who Himself has told us to come to Him.

And finally He said: "Thou shalt glorify Me." Yes, we also need that admonition. As parents, we have all experienced the fact that we must again and again remind our children to express their thanks for kindnesses received. As human beings we also need that reminder. All too often we, who have received so many blessings from God, fail to remember to thank and praise Him. And so, if for no other reason, than to lift our voice in thanks, we must pray.

When we thus think of our own personal prayer-life, let us also think of the example that our Savior, Jesus Christ, set before us. In this Lenten season we, of course, think of the scene in the Garden of Gethsemane. In the hour of need, when danger threatened, He turned to God. We think of Him on the cross. And we hear Him lift His voice in behalf of His neighbors, yes, even His enemies. Can we do less? Are we stronger than He that we need not this help? Remember His Word: "Call upon Me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me."

PLAN APRIL DANCE

The Bancroft Buttercups Girls' Club held its February meeting at the home of Jean Gratz. Roll call was answered by members giving their mother's maiden name.

Mrs. McCulloch announced that the Roy Flaher orchestra from Oile was available for the dance planned for April 30. Joy Hauser showed the yellow orion blanket that was purchased for the raffle.

Members tool leather during the handicraft period. Mrs. Reifenstein gave a talk on "good grooming."

eed with the preparation and setting out of the baits. It also gives a diagram of a trap which can be easily constructed. This trap can be used during the spring and summer season when poisoning them is taboo.
